Underline the adverbs in the following story.

It was the last game of the season and the players were nervous. They looked expectantly at their coach for direction. He told them clearly what he expected from them. Determined to win, each player walked rapidly to their spot on the court. The referee blew the whistle and the players skilfully took control of the ball. Soon the team was dominating the game.

Unfortunately Micheal tripped and fell, letting the other team get the ball. Their opponents had walked patiently for this moment and took advantage. Before long, they scored two points. Then Micheal got back into the game and swiftly took the ball away. He shot the ball from the top of the key and easily scored four points. Luckily nothing else happened and the team won the championship.
