We were all excited. It was the last day of school and we didn't need to do _____ work at all. Instead, the _____ class was going on a picnic, there were 40 students, _____ of us to walk to city park picnic area that was located _____ of meters away. _____ people weren't happy about this, but I didn't mind. It was really nearby, and it took us just _____ minutes to get there. There was _____ time before the picnic, so we decided to play soccer. Accordingly _____ of us had remembered to bring a ball, so we had to play tag instead. Suddenly we heard a loud crash of thunder and we had very _____ time to run to the canopy which was the only protected area. Very _____ of us managed to get there before it started to pour with rain. Unfortunately, there wasn't _____ room under the canopy, which could accommodate the people, and _____ of us had to stand outside in the heavy rain. We were all so miserable and cold especially those of us who were wet, as there was _____ place in the picnic area to get dry. What a disappointing end of the school year!!
