Read the following short story carefully and answer the questions that follow.

One sunny afternoon, Sarah was walking home from school when she heard a soft meowing sound. Curious, she followed the sound and discovered a tiny kitten hiding behind a bush. It looked scared and lost.

Sarah carefully picked up the kitten and noticed a small tag on its collar that read "Fluffy." She knew she had to help the lost kitten find its way home. She decided to take Fluffy to her house and try to locate its owner.

At home, Sarah provided food and water for Fluffy, who eagerly gobbled up the meal. She also made a comfortable bed for Fluffy in a cozy corner of her room. Afterward, Sarah called her mom to tell her about the lost kitten and ask for help in finding its owner.

Sarah and her mom posted flyers around the neighborhood with a picture of Fluffy, hoping someone would recognize the adorable kitten. They also reached out to the local animal shelter and provided a description of the lost kitten.

Days passed, and Sarah took great care of Fluffy, ensuring it felt loved and safe. She played with the kitten and showered it with affection. Fluffy seemed to be adjusting well to its temporary home, but Sarah knew deep down that it needed to be reunited with its owner.

One day, Sarah received a phone call from a woman named Mrs. Johnson. She had seen one of the flyers and believed Fluffy belonged to her daughter, Lily. Sarah was overjoyed to hear the news. She arranged for Mrs. Johnson to come to her house and reunite Fluffy with Lily.
