

Name - _____

Start time - __ : __

End time - __ : __

Read the following poem carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Magic Keys

Would you like to travel far
From the place where now you are?
Read a book!

Would you nature's secrets know,
How her children live and grow?
Read a book!

Is it adventure that you crave,
On land or on ocean wave?
Read a book!

Would you like to talk with kings?
Or to fly with Lindbergh's wings?
Read a book!

Would you look on days gone by?
Know scientific reasons why?
Read a book!

The world before you will unfold,
For a magic key you hold
In a book!

Name - _____

Start time - __ : __

End time - __ : __

Questions:

1. Name at least three different topics or areas of knowledge mentioned in the poem.
2. What does the speaker suggest as a way to travel far and learn about various subjects?
3. What message is the speaker trying to convey through the repeated phrase "Read a book!"?
4. How does the repetition of the phrase "Read a book!" create emphasis and reinforce the importance of reading?
5. Describe the imagery created by the line "Or to fly with Lindbergh's wings?" How does this imagery capture the spirit of adventure and exploration?
6. Reflect on a book that has allowed you to travel to different places, experience adventures, or learn something new. Describe your experience and what you gained from reading that book.
7. Write a paragraph or short story about a magical journey you take after opening a mysterious old book. Describe the places you visit and the adventures you have.
8. Why do you think the speaker emphasizes the diversity of topics that can be explored through books, from talking with kings to understanding scientific reasons?

a b c d e f g h i j k l m n o p q r s t u v w x y z