The Lost Kitten

One sunny afternoon, Emily found a lost kitten in her backyard. It was meowing loudly and looked scared. Emily gently picked it up and brought it inside her house.

She gave the kitten some milk and cuddled with it until it stopped crying.

Then, she asked her mom if they could help find the kitten's owner. Together, they made flyers with a picture of the kitten and Emily's phone number. They posted the flyers around the neighborhood and hoped that someone would call soon. After a few hours, they received a call from a woman who said she was the kitten's owner. Emily was happy that the kitten would be going back home.
